Summer 2023 Reading

But even the worst decisions we
make don’t necessarily remove
us from the circle of humanity.”

“Startling and
revelatory . . .
a rocketing real-life
narrative.”

it changed my whole life. I realized
of all of the people
who had conspired
to get me to this place.”

PHARRELL WILLIAMS,

Summer 2023 Reading

Over the summer, please read these two reflective narratives from the author John Green:

- "Ginkgo Biloba"
- "Sycamore Trees"

As you read, consider how Green is looking both backward (to his past) and inward (to his emotions).

You can optionally take some notes.

Summer Reading 2023

Purchase or borrow one of these four novels and complete the reader's journal assignment to prepare for our first unit: "Tradition and Progress"

"1984 will always be an essential book...for its portrayal of one person struggling to hold on to what is real and valuable." - The Atlantic

"One of the most prophetic dystopian works of the 20th century"
- The Wall Street Journal

"Fiercely political and bleak, yet witty and wise...this novel seems ever more vital in the present day."
- The Guardian

A gripping mystery, a beautiful love story, and... a moral examination of how we treat the vulnerable and different in our society.
