

I am looking forward to a very positive and successful year in fourth grade! Our entire school follows PBIS expectations, which are school-wide expectations for how to behave in all common areas. We also follow these expectations in our classrooms as well. Our GES pledge and the list of the school-wide expectations we follow are also included.

Tools to Good Behavior

(Classroom Rules)

1. Work as a TEAM.
2. Be RESPONSIBLE.
3. LISTEN to others when they are speaking.
4. Be RESPECTFUL to others.
5. Be KIND and HELPFUL
6. Always give BEST EFFORT!

Discipline and Policies/Procedures

PBIS School-Wide Expectations Guilford Elementary School

Pledge

The GES Pledge outlines school-wide expectations of each student.

Assemblies, bathrooms, classroom, cafeteria, hallway, playground, arrival/dismissal, and other rules should be in line with and support school-wide expectations.

Guilford Elementary School Pledge

Cheetahs

show excellence by...    Practicing perseverance      Acting respectfully      Working with integrity      Showing self-discipline

Cheetah Chant

We are Cheetahs!

We are Cheetahs!

And the cheetah is our leader

We Respect it as our leader. Hey!

If you are a cheetah,

You respect all your teachers

And just "rep" your cheetah pride

Overcome all the Odds!

Cheetah Pride

Whooh!
