

WELCOME TO 1st GRADE!

Ms. Drolet, Ms. Gerald, and Ms. Kirkman

droletl@gcsnc.com gerald@gcsnc.com kirkmam@gcsnc.com

WHAT'S NEW?!

- Fables
- Human Body
- History of the Earth
- American Revolution
- Fairytales
- Habitats
- Addition and subtraction
- Counting to 150
- Measurement
- Telling Time to the hour/half hour

SUPPLY LIST

- 12 glue sticks
- 2 crayon boxes (24 count)
- 8 dry erase markers (skinny tip)
- 1 box gallon size Ziploc bags
- 1 box snack, sandwich, or quart Ziploc bags
- 3 erasers (pink rectangle)
- 2 poly/plastic folders
- 1 scissors
- 1 pencil pouch
- 1 book bag (no wheels)
- 1 change of clothes
- 1 pair of durable headphones
- 2 tissue boxes
- 1 baby wipe
- Clorox wipes

FIELD TRIPS

- Victory Mountain - farm and pumpkins
- Conservator's Center - habitats and animal rescue
- Two more to be determined

FUN FACTS

Things to look forward to in first grade

- Maya, Aztec, and Inca crafts
- Mapping and geography
- Habitat murals
- Animal dress-up day
- Class science project
- Organs on display project

The first-grade team collectively has 59 years of teaching experience. Ms. Drolet speaks French, Ms. Gerald plays the violin, and Ms. Kirkman builds Legos. First - grade is sure to be a fun-filled year of learning.

CONTINENT OF STUDY

South America