WHY SERVICE-LEARNING?

WHY DISTRICTS, SCHOOLS, AND CLASSROOMS SHOULD PRACTICE SERVICE-LEARNING

• Service-Learning leads to engagement and effective instruction.
• Service-Learning helps academic improvement and higher order thinking skills.
• Service-Learning fosters the development of important personal and social skills.
• Service-Learning develops stronger ties to schools, communities and society.
• Service-Learning promotes exploration of various career pathways.
• Service-Learning is associated with positive school environments.
• Service-Learning is associated with more community support for schools.

Dear Friends,

It is the goal of GCS that every student receives a world-class education and leaves prepared to succeed in the college or career of their choice.

One proven way of reaching that goal is through character development and service-learning. Students involved in service-learning are far more likely to become civic minded and involved in their community years after they graduate. They also improve their social and personal skills, the “essential” or “soft skills” we hear so many employers say they look for in potential employees. We must engage students and give them opportunities to work alongside others. Service-learning, when done well, accomplishes this.

This year, we’re making some changes. One of those is a new application, x2Vol, which will not only log service-learning hours, but also provide students the opportunity to capture reflections about their experiences. The information can then be transferred to college applications and resumes.

These changes are outlined in the GCS Service Learning Handbook. Thank you for taking the time to read it, and for helping to lift GCS students even higher as we help #GCSSoarToGreatness.

In the interest of all children,

Sharon L. Contreras, Ph.D.
Superintendent, Guilford County Schools

The character initiative core team supports the growth and implementation of the character development initiative throughout the district by working directly with regional offices and schools.
Guilford County Schools (GCS) was one of only three districts in the country to earn the National District of Character recognition, which is part of the National Schools and Districts of Character Program, administered by the Character Education Partnership (CEP) in Washington, D.C. This is also the first time a school district in North Carolina has won this national award.

All 127 GCS schools are engaged in character development and service-learning. Since 2011, over 5,500 graduating seniors were recognized for their active participation in service-learning equating more than 1.4 million hours of service to schools and our community.

The Guilford County Schools (GCS) Character Development Initiative has three fundamentals: Character Education, Civic Education and Service-Learning.

What is Character Education?
The deliberate effort for people to understand, care about and act upon core ethical values.

What is Civic Education?
A core curriculum and teaching strategies that give students the knowledge, skills, virtues, and confidence to actively participate in democratic life.

What is Service-Learning?
A way of teaching and learning that connects positive and meaningful action in the community with academic learning, personal growth and civic responsibility. Service-Learning helps develop citizenship and good character while providing direct connections to the academic curriculum.
Service-Learning is more than just simple volunteering. In the process of service to their school and/or community, students learn a lot about themselves and their responsibilities as a citizen while making connections with what they are learning in schools.

Service-Learning: EXAMPLE 1

1. Coordinating a community marathon is service.
2. Measuring body mass index is learning.
3. Calculating the average BMI of a school, setting up a website to gather statistics, then organizing a “Walk across North Carolina” to help reduce obesity is service-learning.

Service-Learning: EXAMPLE 2

1. Picking up trash on a riverbank is service.
2. Studying water samples under a microscope is learning.
3. Science students collecting and analyzing water samples, documenting their results, and presenting their findings to a local pollution control agency is service-learning.

* Adapted from National Youth Leadership Council (http://www.nylc.org/)

How Students Engage in Service-Learning

1. Students can participate in service-learning experiences through GCS classes/clubs. GCS staff should complete a Teacher Documentation Form found on page 9.

2. Students can participate in service-learning experiences independently through non-profit community based service-learning projects. Students should complete the Service-Learning Approval Form found on pages 14-15.

Be the change you want to see in the world.

SERVICE-LEARNING DIPLOMA AND EXEMPLARY AWARD

SERVICE-LEARNING DIPLOMA
The Service-Learning Diploma is a locally-developed, official recognition program designed to recognize high school students who are committed to serving their community. Students who complete a minimum of 250 hours of service-learning experience over the course of their high school years will receive this certification upon graduation.

- The program is designed to recognize students who dedicate a significant amount of time to service-learning in an effort to address challenges and solve problems in the community.
- All students who complete this program will be awarded a GCS Service-Learning Diploma. Additionally, at graduation, these students will be distinguished by wearing a Service-Learning cord.

Graduates are required to complete 250 hours to receive the Service-Learning Diploma.

It is recommended that students distribute these hours over the course of their four years of high school. This pacing will make their service more consequential and manageable with their other academic responsibilities.

Students entering GCS at any time after their 9th grade year will still be required to complete a minimum of 250 service hours to be eligible for the Service-Learning Diploma. Documented and verifiable Service Learning hours that meet the program criteria completed in school districts outside of Guilford County will count towards the Service-Learning Diploma and Service-Learning Exemplary Award.

GCS students are seen here planting a tree at their school on Earth Day. Through this experience, they are able to connect skills they are learning in language arts, math, science and social studies while positively impacting their school through service.

SERVICE-LEARNING EXEMPLARY AWARD
The Service-Learning Exemplary Award is an honor GCS high school students may receive upon graduation. This award recognizes students who have devoted a minimum of 100 hours of service-learning experience in their community throughout their high school years.

Graduates are required to complete 100 hours of service to receive the Service-Learning Exemplary Award.

While there is no set number of hours to be earned in any school year, as a time management tool, we recommend the following schedule as a guide.

GCS STAFF: USING SERVICE-LEARNING AS A TEACHING STRATEGY IN CLASSROOMS AND CLUBS

If you are a teacher or club sponsor for Service-Learning activities, here is what you need to do:

1. Plan a quality Service-Learning experience that:
   Connects to National Youth Leadership Council’s (www.nylc.org) K-12 Service-Learning Standards for Quality Practice listed below:

   | ✨ Meaningful Service | ✨ Link to Curriculum |
   | ✨ Diversity          | ✨ Reflection         |
   | ✨ Youth Voice        | ✨ Partnerships        |
   | ✨ Progress Monitoring| ✨ Duration and Intensity |

2. Facilitate your students’ participation in a quality service-learning experience through Investigation, Preparation & Planning, Action, Reflection, and Demonstration (IPARD).
   Allows students to participate in the following five components of quality service-learning:
   - ✔️ Investigation: Identify a need or area of interest in their school or community
   - ✔️ Preparation and Planning: Engage in planning, implementation, and evaluation processes
   - ✔️ Action: Begin the act of service
   - ✔️ Reflection: Reflect on the experience before, during, and after
   - ✔️ Demonstration: Share their experience with family, friends, school and/or community

3. Register the Service-Learning experience by:
   Completing and submitting the Service-Learning Teacher Documentation Form via email to the Service-Learning Teacher Leader contact at your school before engaging youth in a service-learning experience.

   Students can earn hours for time spent in preparing and planning as well as time in service.

   In about two weeks, you should receive an email from the Character Development Office verifying that your documents have been received.

   Once the Teacher Documentation Form is received by the Character Development Office, create an Opportunity on x2VOL within your school’s community. This will allow students to track hours.

SERVICE-LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

EXPECTATIONS OF PARENTS
1. Help your child select an agency/organization/club that will provide him/her an opportunity to positively impact his/her community through service.
2. Sign the Service-Learning Approval Form and, if necessary, assist your child in obtaining a signature from the agency/organization/club.
3. As your child participates in the service, discuss with him/her what he/she is doing; how it is connected with what he/she is learning in school and how it is helping to make positive changes in the community.
4. Parents are unable to verify their own student’s hours. If the parent is the advisor of an organization, then an assistant to the program is responsible for verifying the student’s service-learning hours.

EXPECTATIONS OF SERVICE-LEARNING PROVIDERS
1. Give the student an opportunity to participate in the planning of his/her service-learning experience.
2. Provide a safe and engaging experience.
3. Report any major issues or incidents of inappropriate behavior to the Character Development Office.
4. Accurately record the number of hours the student engages in the service in order to verify student hours.
5. Help the student reflect on the impact of his/her service before, during and after the service-learning experience (see pages 16-17 for more information about Reflection).
6. Advocate for other organizations to engage students in service-learning experiences.
7. Contact servicelearning@gcsnc.com for an orientation on how to use x2VOL and additional information.

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.”

Margaret Meade
In quality Service-Learning experiences, students participate in the following five components: This process will help students create their community based service-learning project and complete the Service-Learning Approval Form found on pages 13-14.

Investigation
- Identify a need or area of interest in your school or community (consult the wheel on page 9 of this handbook to stay on track).
- Discuss what you would like to do with your parents and get approval.
- Contact a Service-Learning Provider (this could be a community agency, an organization, a club or a teacher advisor) who currently addresses the need or area of interest you have identified to gather additional information.

Preparation and Planning
- Work with your selected Service-Learning Provider to identify specific duties that would be expected of you.
- Complete the Service-Learning Approval Form located at www.gcsnc.com and get the 3 required signatures from your parents, your Service-Learning Provider and yourself.
- Turn in the form to your school’s counseling office or your school’s designated Service-Learning contact person.
- Always keep a copy of your documents for your own records.
- Receive an approval of your project from the Character Development Office within two weeks of submitting your Service-Learning Approval Form.

Action
- Begin the change in your school and community.
- Continue your reflections throughout your time of service.
- Get started in x2VOL to track your hours (instructions on page 20-21).

Reflection
- Document your reflections before, during and after the service.
- Choose unique ways to reflect throughout the service. (Example(s): Create a mural/scrapbook, make a video, write a poem, keep a journal or complete the Service-Learning Reflection form. See page 16 for more ideas.)
- Discuss your reflection activity with the Service-Learning Provider at the end of your service.

Demonstration
- Share your experience with your family, friends, school, house of worship, community or elected officials.

“Service has the power to change the world, and when youth like you plan and lead thoughtful, impactful projects, service does change the world!”

LOGGING HOURS IN X2VOL

1. Log in to x2VOL and view your Dashboard.

2. Click the green button, [Add Hours].

3. You will be on your Activity Log page.

   a. If you signed up for an opportunity in x2VOL prior to the event happening, you will see it listed in the bottom section, Community and School Opportunities. Click the [Add Hours] button to log your hours.

   b. If you did not sign up for the opportunity in x2VOL, you can log your hours as a Personal Project. Click the blue, [Create New] button in the top section titled Personal Projects.

4. Every time you log hours, there will be fields to fill out: Activity Name, Project Description, Hours amount, date etc. You can add an attachment if needed.

5. Recurring Project: if this project is something you do on a regular basis, make sure you check the box, [Make this a Recurring Project]. It will save to your Activity Log and allow you to just add the hours and dates in the future, instead of logging the entire activity from scratch each time.

6. Multiple Dates: if you’ve done a project over the span of multiple dates, you should enter the last date you volunteered and then explain the details of all the dates you served in the description box.

7. Goals: please select the proper goals for this project to count towards. You may only have one option to select with all of your goals which allow double-dipping.

8. Honor Code: you must check the honor code before submitting your hours. You are claiming that the information you submitted is accurate and true.

My Hours were denied, what do I do?

If your Service-Learning Program Coach denies your hours for any reason, you will receive an email notifying you the hours have been denied. If they added a comment, you will see that as well.

Editing your entries in x2VOL...

You can edit your project entry by going to your Activity Log page and clicking the [Edit] button next to the entry you wish to edit. You only can edit opportunities that have not been approved by the school yet.

Some things to think about as you participate in service-learning:

You will represent your family and school.
Do it with integrity by presenting yourself in appropriate attire and being well-groomed.

Use appropriate language with children, the elderly, animals, etc.

Listen respectfully and follow all directions.
These are important social skills in future careers and in life.

Honor all time commitments you make.
This is a life skill you will need in any career you choose.

Be prepared with whatever materials you need.
(Notebook, pencil, sweater, gloves, your Service-Learning Log, etc.)

Ask questions or clarify tasks when you are unclear of what is expected of you.

Show character and honesty in all service-learning situations.

Keep an accurate Service-Learning Student Log.
Without a confirmation, you won’t get credit for your hours of service.

Some of your teachers may offer service-learning hours related to their course.
Remind them to register the service-learning experience with the number of hours each student has completed per each service-learning experience. (And be sure you keep a log of your hours of service.)
