GCS 2018-19 Guidelines for Participation
High School Battle of the Books
(Based on NCSLMA Guidelines)

The North Carolina School Library Media Association is an affiliate of the American Library Association. As such, we seek to further the mission of promoting the highest quality of library and information services and public access to information to school library media professionals in the state of North Carolina. In this role, we sponsor programs such as the Battle of the Books as a service to our constituents: school library media coordinators and the students in their individual school districts. The promotion of this program serves our goals to encourage reading by all of our students and the development of exemplary school libraries.

Eligibility Guidelines for Participation

All guidelines must be met to participate in GCS Battle of the Books program. The participants must be:

• A public, charter, or independent school recognized by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction with students in grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 for the current year of participation.

• A school with a cataloged collection of information resources, a designated space as the media center on the site of the school, a materials budget and open a minimum of 20 hours per week.

• A school employing a licensed on-site school Library Media Coordinator.

• The school Library Media Coordinator is a current NCSLMA member.

General Guidelines

1. All students participating must be enrolled in ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade at the participating school for the current school year.

2. All ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students in participating schools must be given the opportunity to participate in the Battle of the Books.

3. Each team must have at least one on-site Battle of the Books (BOB) coach who is a licensed school Library Media Coordinator and must directly supervise, administer and coach the middle school Battle of the Books team but MAY designate other school employees to assume specific duties.

4. Teams must not exceed the maximum number of 12 members. There is no minimum number. No substitutions will be accepted once the team roster has been submitted to the district coordinator.

5. Each school may send only one team to the district competition.

6. Attendance at the district competition(s) will be limited to no more than 12 team members, and 3 coaches.

7. No current Battle of the Books titles are allowed at the competition.

8. BOB judges and/or Library Media Services have the authority to refuse to allow a team to participate in the event of un-sportsmanlike behavior or other extenuating circumstances.

9. In the event of a situation that is not specifically addressed in the BOB rules, THE DECISION OF THE JUDGES IS FINAL.

10. The use of any device (e.g. cell phones, videocameras, electronic devices) to record any part of the competition is not allowed. Photography is permitted before and after the competition only.

11. All cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off during the competition. Please consider keeping student cell phones together on the day of the competition to avoid student usage. Students may only use cell phones at designated breaks and at lunch.

12. Media specialists and/or coaches will be available to serve as officials, if needed, at the elementary school and middle school Battle of the Books competitions.

13. Teams not adhering to these guidelines are subject to disqualification.
