

Spring Break Reading Challenge

Get caught reading over break!
 Read at least 300 minutes over spring break and you could win a gift card to Scuppernong Books.

The details:
 Minutes must be read and recorded between April 15 and April 24. A signed spring break reading log must be turned in to the school library media coordinator by Friday, April 29.

Spring Break is here and GCS wants you to keep reading! Use this log to record the minutes you are reading over the break. When spring break ends, return your form to your school's library media specialist for an opportunity to win prizes. Students must read at least 300 minutes to qualify for the prizes! Give the signed reading log to your school library media coordinator by April 29.
